

Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs)

Mechanical Engineering graduates will be able to:

PEO 1: Apply the knowledge of Mechanical engineering to design and implement new systems, products, tools to address needs of the society.

PEO 2: Develop innovative technologies to solve engineering problems of social relevance and contribute to sustainable development.

PEO 3: Work effectively in a team to carry out multi-disciplinary projects and exhibit leadership qualities and communication skills.

PEO 4: Engage in lifelong learning for career advancement and adapt to change in professional and social needs.