Lenin, son of renowned Tamil filmmaker A. Bhimsingh, was deeply influenced by music and movies growing up in Purasawalkam, Chennai where he was exposed to Beethoven and Mozart through his Anglo-Indian neighbors. He began his career as an assistant editor and made his independent editing debut with Mahendran's Uthiripookkal (1979). In the mid-1980s, he teamed up with his assistant V. T. Vijayan, and together they edited over 100 films across Tamil, Malayalam, Kannada, Telugu, Hindi, and even an English film, Eli My Friend. Lenin has won six National Film Awards and served as the chairman of the Film Federation of India in 2011.
